

Lisa de Boer

Bio Summary

Lisa de Boer is an accomplished multi-faceted Glass artist, bespoke glass technician, Interior designer and specialist furniture designer.

Her expertise includes:

- All aspects of kiln-formed glass – including: product design, glass slumping, glass fusion, 2D & 3D glass mould design, kiln operation, kiln maintenance, glass cutting/drilling, preparation, handling and installation.
- Multi-medium Glass-painting artist (requires back to front techniques)
Skills include: custom design, free-hand and air-brushing, spray booth
- Award winning Interior Designer with an emphasis on the use of artistic glass fabrication and glass as functional artworks.
- Successful startup Entrepreneur, Business Operator and General Manager of Voodoo Glass (custom and bespoke glass fabricators), Curator and management of Glass Xpressions Art Gallery and principle designer at Lisa de Boer Design.
- Glass Sculpture Designer including decorative sconce lighting and chandeliers,
- Leadlight Artist and Glass blower
- Specialist furniture design
- Teacher & Mentor to a team of glass artisans.

Lisa has managed her 488sqm workshop and design studio on the Gold Coast for the past 26 years.

www.lisadeboer.design

www.voodooglass.com.au

www.glassxpressions.com.au

